She read books while Mother shopped or cleaned. Sometimes she would even read in the bathtub!

One sunny day, she chose a book about a small brown bear that liked to travel then she went to the front porch to read.

Just as she got to the best part of her book, she saw a car pull into the driveway of the house next door.

No one lived in that house. Anne Marie's friend, Beth, had moved four weeks ago, and the house was empty. Anne Marie peeked over the top of her book to see who it was.
