

The Girl and the Block

by Heidi Jenkins

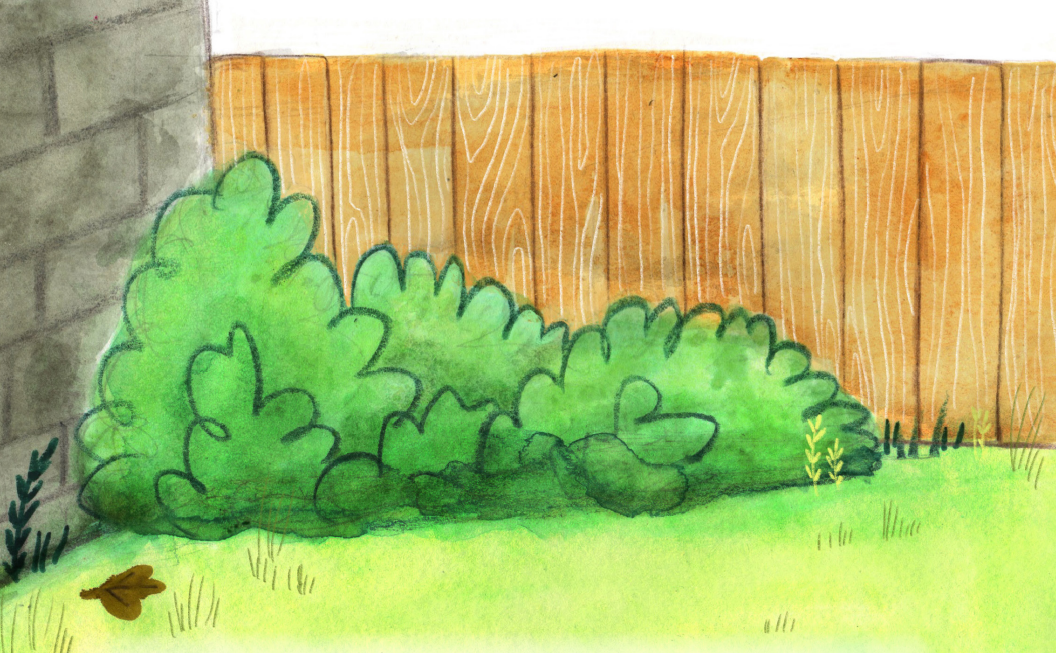

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

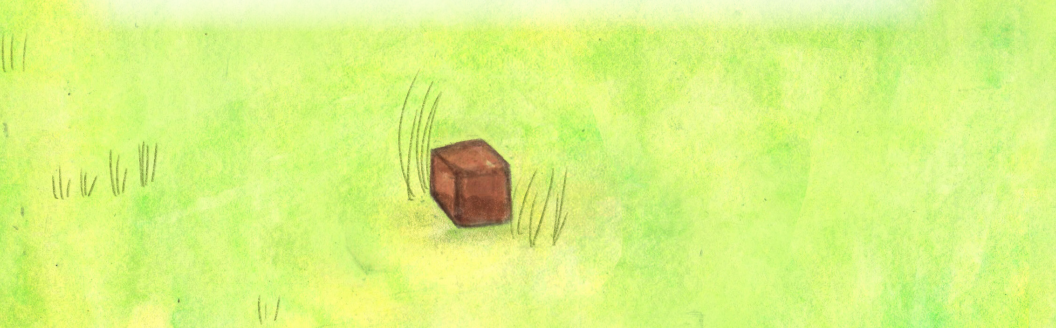

A block sat all alone.

It sat in the backyard.

A boy named Tim put it there.

It sat for a long time.

One day, it started to rain.

Tim's sister went to the backyard and saw the block.

She took off her wet jacket
and wiped off the block.

Now it was clean and dry.

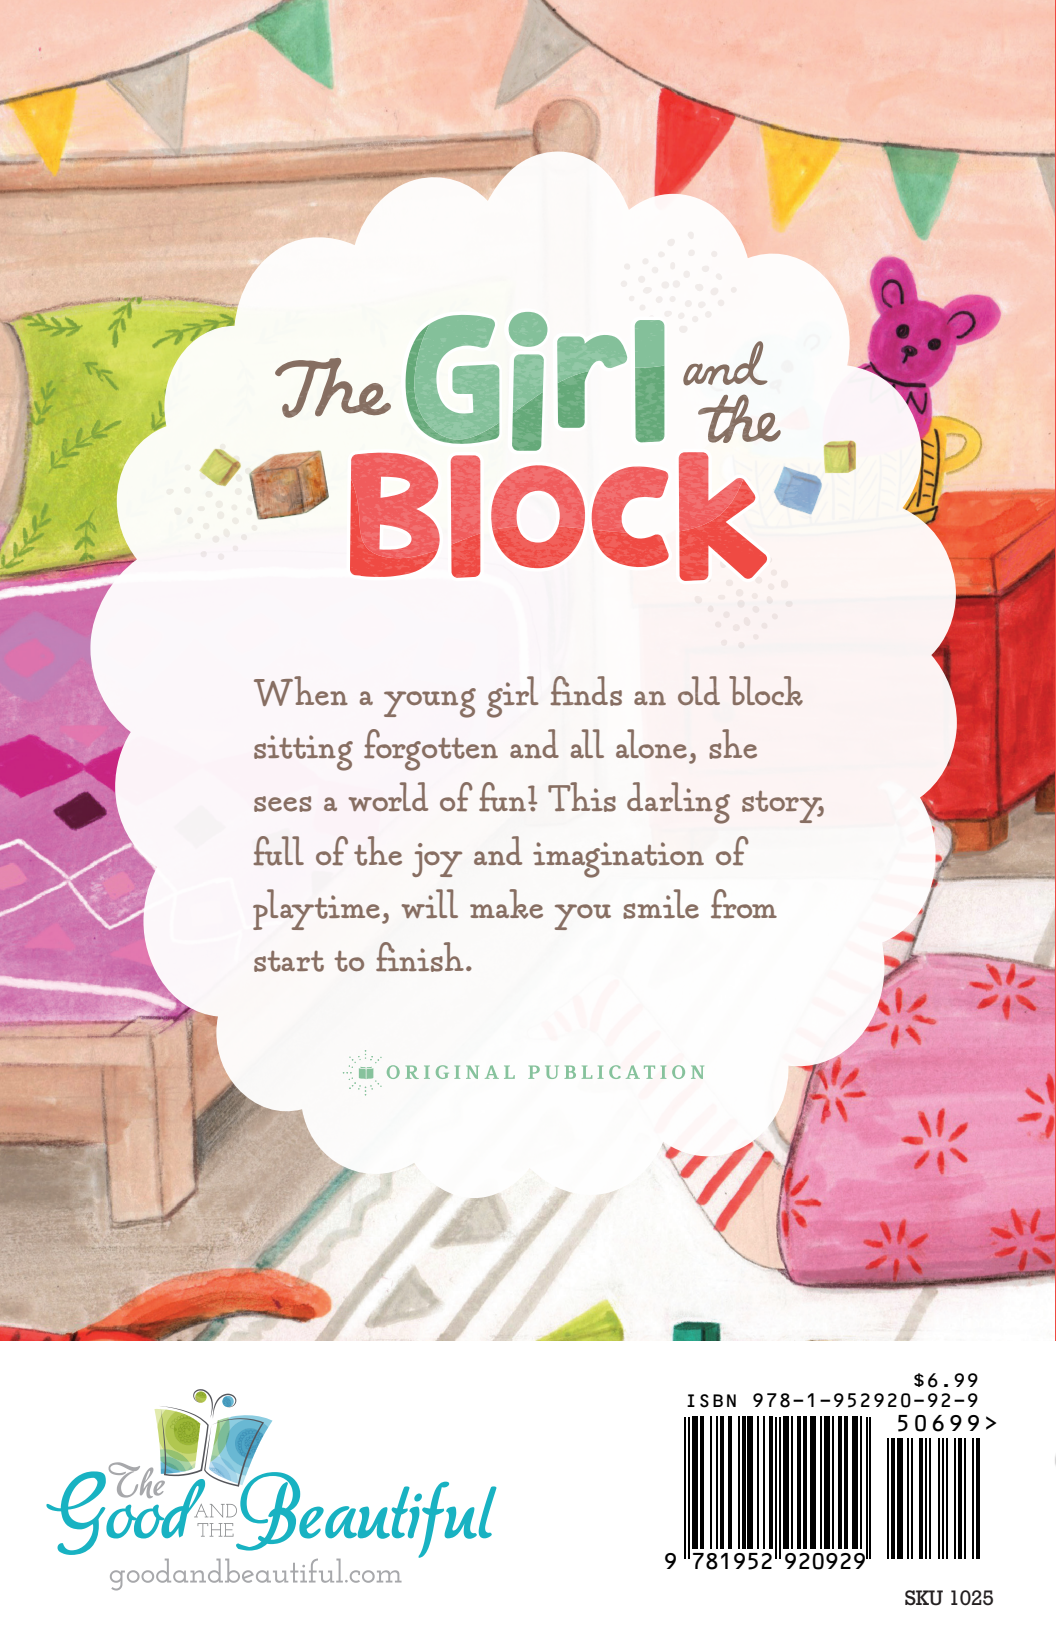

In her room the girl
had more blocks.

She put the old block with them.

The Girl and the BLOCK

When a young girl finds an old block sitting forgotten and all alone, she sees a world of fun! This darling story, full of the joy and imagination of playtime, will make you smile from start to finish.
